

Emergency Response System INFORMATION NETWORK

ECO-6 ERS

Date: 4-17-2021

Time (based on 2400 hours): 17:00 hours

ECO-6 EMERGENCY RESPONSE BOARD

Chief Timothy McPherson (Chairman)

Dr. Louis Georges Tin (Secretariat)

Keturah Amoako (Budget)

Hugh Johnson (Budget)

Melvin Brown (Process Manager)

NEWS AND UPDATE

St- VINCENT VOLCANIC ERUPTION

Code: Red

Maximum Alert

ECO-6 Crisis Board and Crisis Team are engaging in follow up coordination with St Vincent authorities

IRREGULAR MIGRATION FROM COLOMBIA
TO PANAMA THROUGH THE DARIEN JUNGLE

CODE: Red

MAXIMUM ALERT

Eco-6 and SOAD are very concerned regarding the vulnerability of some 1,300 migrants majority of African Descent who are stranded in the Darien Gap, boarder with Colombia. Among the migrants are men and women, including pregnant women, as well as children, including newborns. Most of the migrants come from Cuba and Haiti, along with others from African and Asian countries, and are headed to the United States.

FLOOD WATERS AFFECT CHIRIQUI, BOCAS DEL TORO
AND INDIGENOUS COMMUNITIES

COAD BLUE

CRITICAL

The Provinces of Bocas del Toro, Chiriqui and Indigenous communities are affected by heavy rain.

Relocation in ongoing

ACTION TAKEN

INCIDENT REPORTS

ECO-6 Emergency Response System has open an incident report file on these aforementioned emergencies

Coordination with local authorities and humanitarian help as well as resources will be in place to assist our brothers and sisters.